RULES

At Taha Academy, students are always expected to model good behaviour and to follow all school rules as they are representing the academy. The school's rules are as follows:

- Mobile phones are prohibited on site at all times; however they can be used after students are dismissed if they need to contact parents.
- Any devices that go off during class will be confiscated, with the parent/guardian required to collect this from the head teacher at the end of the school day
- When walking around the building students are to always be calm and quiet to respect their surroundings
- Disciplinary actions are in place for lateness, incorrect uniform, behaviour, failure to complete class work & homework and failure to bring schoolbooks & appropriate stationary.
- Disciplinary procedure - If a student is caught breaking the rules, they will be given a verbal warning, then a call home to inform parents and if the action is repeatedly broken after these measures then the student will be considered for expulsions based on their circumstances.
- The severity of these will depend upon the misconduct as well as occurrence
